

Getting the Most from Your Horoscope

There is usually at least 1 and sometimes 2 other signs to read in addition to your Sun Sign, allowing you to synthesize the messages for greater depth and accuracy.

Some people choose to read all the signs to gain a fuller perspective for the synchronicities destined and guidelines given for ALL 12 Signs, as it provides a whole perspective, or the same core themes from 12 different and distinct angles, like sophisticated photography.

As well, if you are born near the cusp and are not exactly sure what your Sun Sign is, I can tell you. In both regards, if you are unsure and want to know, send me an email with your birth month, day, year, place, and time of birth. In this regard, while I do not strictly require it to provide you with a Reading, I will need the time of birth. If you do not know it, you can either try to get it through 'Vital Statistics' (Canada) (USA) or just search for it in your country of birth.

Or, in the course of a Reading, I can help you to determine what your time of birth probably is, the process of which is invariably illuminating, insightful and helpful as we take a journey down memory lane to review the dates of specific events that were destined to synchronistically occur.

As one wise fellow once remarked to me, "Every person owes it to themselves to get at least one good Reading of their birth Chart in the course of their life, and usually the sooner the better!"
