

Horoscopes Work

Horoscopes are based on your Sun Sign, and produce a chart that reveals all the 12 Signs following from placing yours on the First House, which is symbolic of the 'sunrise moment' that begins the day. So, even simply knowing your Sun Sign will provide you with enough knowledge to get a pretty good sense of the probability factors at play. Some say 'horoscopes don't work', but indeed they do. The reason they do is wonderful and understanding how is a spiritual understanding, which can be described as follows: The dualistic, manifest universe can be described as a divine matrix. It is quite a statement which I more fully unfold in other articles and Masterclasses. Basically, it can be said that life in its myriad, manifest reality is indeed a Divine Matrix. More specifically, it can be understood as a 'grand continuum' of wholes within wholes. This basically defines the paradigm of Holism, the infinite parts of which can be understood as 'Fractals'.

Regarding Horoscopes, by simply knowing your Sun Sign, you have the initial 'fractal key' to access the probabilities in store at this time, and the purposes of them. These 'fractals' or features of any given whole, refer to archetypes. The 12 Signs of the Zodiac can be regarded as an 'archetypal whole' and each sign is a fractal of this whole.

This logic is associated with the order of the 'Natural Zodiac' which hosts a foundational sequence as follows: 1 – Aries, 2 – Taurus, 3 – Gemini, 4 – Cancer, 5 – Leo, 6 – Virgo, 7 – Libra, 8 – Scorpio, 9 – Sagittarius, 10 – Capricorn, 11 – Aquarius, 12 – Pisces. What is not commonly understood is that this order is based on a division of a circle, which finds its roots in sacred geometry, which in turn is a foundational science for understanding archetypes, hosts an intrinsic philosophy within it.

So, even simply knowing your Sun Sign, you are accessing a fractal of the whole, which will provide you with enough knowledge to get a pretty good sense of the probability factors at play. Positively, by doing so, they offer you the opportunity to be more aligned with your core nature and destiny. The usual result is that you resonate with what is said, ideally registering in your mind as an affirmation or as a hint regarding choices you want and perhaps need to make. When the insights and guidance via the Horoscopes align, you will feel a little clearer, and perhaps more centered and empowered to engage in the conscious, authentic, co-creation of your life and, thereby, also contribute to directly and indirectly supporting and empowering others, as well.

You can also read one or two other signs in particular to gain a more layered reading. These other signs can be understood as more personal elaborations of the way in which you more personally align with the Zodiac Sign Fractals, which is what they are, in light of the Zodiac as a whole!

So, for example, when you hear that a planet or an eclipse factor or anything is occurring in any given 'Solar House', the anchor point is based on the Sun Sign. So, in accordance with the order of the Natural Zodiac, beginning with Aries and ending with Pisces, if your Sun Sign is Gemini, or the third sign, bringing emphasis to it requires placing it in the first position of Aries. So, from the perspective of Gemini as the first sign, Cancer would be the second sign, Leo the third, and so on... This logic can be a little complicated to understand without an experiential foundation, but it is quite elementary. The main point is that there is often 1 or 2 other signs you can read in addition to your Sun Sign to gain a more layered reading, so to speak.

Members to my Horoscopes, which include the Weekly, Monthly and Yearly, can request to know what these signs are as part of their Membership benefits. Member or not, if you do 'not' know the time, it can be determined, but this would require a personal Reading to specifically 'rectify' your chart based on asking questions about your personality and specific experiences you have had in your life and when they occurred. Yes, hindsight is 20/20 and destiny is real. Of course, in the final analysis, it is for you to decide if Horoscopes, and specifically mine, provide you with inspiration, insight and practical and sometimes wise guidance. If you agree that they do, then it can be said that you agree that they work... for you. If so, perhaps you will also agree that they can work for others you know and love. If so, An Annual Membership to get more and longer Horoscopes makes for a great gift! ☺
