

Summarized Destiny Themes for Each Sign - For 2023

Aries (March 21 – April 19)

Jupiter in Aries has already begun and will continue to catapult you into new territory, both literally and figuratively for the next five plus months. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 indicates that your energy levels are running quite high as the year begins. Spring renovation projects are likely. Yet, get them done by June as a sporting, playful cycle begins extending through mid-July. You will be ready to get back to work and it could include fitness programs through August. September into October could prove edgy on relationship fronts. A passionate and ambitious drive will steadily increase from mid-October through November and December looks like a good month to travel. Chiron in Aries and its Many Conjunctions in March will inspire a deepened impulse to focus on healing your sense of identity and reasserting a stronger degree of authentic self-expression. Saturn in Pisces will push you to focus on existing projects and an inclination to retreat and deeply rest. Pluto in Aquarius will activate future-oriented perspectives and amplify your sense of what you should do and what should be done generally in a wider, collective sense. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate your drive to overcome inertia, procrastination and confusion for the sake of feeling more centered and abundant. Jupiter in Taurus will increase your ambitions for more material comfort and to strengthen your overall foundation and perhaps your constitution too. In July, the changing Lunar Nodes from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will contribute to amplifying your drive and determination to assert yourself more authentically. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will provide a jolt in your relationship life, possibly sparking both endings and new beginnings the process of which will extend into Spring 2024.

Taurus (April 20 – May 20)

Jupiter in Aries has already begun to push you to access your core strengths and confidences in yourself and life in general, and this will continue through to your birthday. The movement of Mars from Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 is already helping you to get clearer on the list of goals and objectives you want to accomplish over the coming months and could well stimulate new streams of income which will continue through to mid-July. There could be an overlap period of bigger projects that began in May through this period as well. Plan to take time off in July and August as you will be more inclined to want to play than work. Yet, you will be ready to dig-in deep again in September through to the end of the year and will want the support of significant others progressively. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March will contribute to the focus that Jupiter is taking to become more empowered yet, which requires inner work such as clearing limiting belief blocks. Saturn in Pisces will manifest as returns of many kinds, for better or worse, depending on how responsible you have been with your choices over the past few years. Pluto in Aquarius could manifest as major change in your public and professional life and push you to a whole new level of power guided by high ideals associated with individual rights and freedoms. The April Aries Solar Eclipse could have a more subdued effect, yet could also activate powers and impulses that have remained dormant in your subconscious mind and could push you into a very determined mode of self-expression. Jupiter in Taurus begins around your birthday and will push you even more to both increase and variety on multiple projects. In July, the Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio into Aries/Libra will lead you to consider the needs of the many over those of the few. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate desires, or the realization of the necessity to make changes in your lifestyle, and thereby enter a whole new focus on health.

Gemini (May 21 – June 20)

Jupiter in Aries has likely stimulated new associations and friendships and perhaps new perspectives as well. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 suggests that the year begins on a strong note regarding your determination to assert yourself. By mid-spring, however, doing so may take more effort. Your energy levels should rise in June through much of July. This will create a momentum of resolve and determination to access hidden reserves of power. Summer 2023 largely includes a strong interest in social and cultural activities. September through October, however, will require a more deliberate focus backed by discipline regarding your health. 2023 could end on an edgy note on relationship fronts that require access of inner resources and a resolve to exercise faith and personal confidence. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March is likely to activate issues on friendship fronts that require more attention for the sake of healing misunderstandings and possibly aggressive exchanges. Saturn in Pisces will push you to assume new levels of responsibility yet which will require you to face any lingering fears and earn new stripes of courage and disciplined determination. Pluto in Aquarius will have the progressive effect of increasing your sense of connection with a much wider scope of social outreach or to become more aware of international affairs. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate you to improve your ability to communicate, to learn to understand and to be understood. Jupiter in Taurus help you to draw upon hidden reserves of faith both in yourself and in significant others in your life. In July, the Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will contribute to desires to reach out more to engage others and to meet and greet leading to the beginnings of important new relationships. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will inspire you to lay claim to what makes you special, which will include a renewed emphasis on cultivating your gifts and talents.

Cancer (June 21 – July 22)

Jupiter in Aries has already and will continue to manifest as new beginnings and expansion in either your career or your public life in general. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 is currently pushing you to do inner work. This requires getting clear on what aspects of your life are in need of improvement. By mid-spring you will enter a much more assertive mode. This will lead to an emphasis on making new and better investments of your time and creative energy. By mid-summer you will be energized to make specific improvements where needed but you could also benefit from getting away for a while, ideally in a way that you can be both adventurous and get some needed respite. By September, directing more focus on your home and family relationships will likely prove important. By mid-October, you enter a heightened creative period and the year ends with a determination to work smarter and not harder. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March suggest that issues at work or connected to your social status will need to be squarely addressed and healed if you are to continue in a healthy manner. Saturn in Pisces will activate a greater interest in acquiring new kinds of knowledge that include critical thinking regarding what is true and what is not. Pluto in Aquarius will activate your personal power but could also trigger a whole series of changes that you might not have anticipated. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will boost your determination, especially in terms of making investments. Jupiter in Taurus could manifest a creative impulse to focus more on your talents and hobbies. In July, the Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio into Aries/Libra will also direct more energy to new beginnings in your public and professional life. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate you to redirect your focus to home and family.

Leo (July 23 – August 22)

Jupiter in Aries represents a cycle of adventure and increased philosophical thinking regarding what is true and wise. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 begins with striking a balance between resistance and resignation to the futility of resistance. This will shift through later May and June to important work behind the scenes. All being well, you will come out of the gates strongly in July through August with vim and vigor to take new leads and enter new territory. Your focus will become that much more practical in September and your energy levels should rise steadily, pushing you to get to the bottom of things and finish the year with a sense of accomplishment. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March will guide you to heal wounded beliefs about yourself. Saturn in Pisces will prove to be a deeply transformational, even metamorphic process that will begin in March. Pluto in Aquarius implies themes of death and rebirth on relationship fronts but could also amount to engagements and commitments with people with more power than you have experienced before. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will ignite a whole new vision and philosophy to support it. Jupiter in Taurus triggers expansion and increase in your career and public life. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will support you to be more committed to your creative potential perhaps more than ever before. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will serve to activate new perspectives and perhaps even lead to the forging of important new friendships and relationships in general.

Virgo (August 23 – September 22)

Jupiter in Aries will lead you into new territory and bring returns for past efforts which could have a transformational effect on you. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 indicates an ardent push in your public and professional life through to mid-May. A push to know the deeper truth about matters will increase through June into July followed by a busy time behind the scenes in August, perhaps also with an urge to get away. September into October will see you taking new leads and strides allowing you to coast for a while before you pour it on again with a final push in December to think big but with both feet on the ground. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March imply a deeper resolve to purge and cleanse toxins and unhealthy patterns. Saturn in Pisces will lead you to deepen your commitment to knowledge and power. Pluto in Aquarius will push you to focus on the details more and to do the work required to achieve. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will increase your resolve to make changes for the sake of self-improvement. Jupiter in Taurus will amplify your desire for more harmony and balance, both in psychological and practical terms. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will activate your resolve to work more consciously, deliberately and strategically with the demands of the changing times. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will push you to move beyond any illusions, self-deceptions and wishful thinking in order to access hidden layers of your creative potential.

Libra (September 23 – October 22)

Jupiter in Aries will manifest as increased social outreach and attention. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 push you to increase your sense of personal freedom all winter and well into spring. This will be followed by a driving push to advance your position in the world through to mid-July. You could feel a bit more punchy and rebellious through the summer but will be ready to retreat in September. In October you will be taking new leads to lay the foundation for growing ambitions that inspire your sense of opportunity. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March will require healing on relationship fronts, perhaps especially regarding your own approach and attitude. Saturn in Pisces will synchronize with the need to pay closer attention to the finer details of what keeps you healthy. Pluto in Aquarius will trigger your creative passions. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will trigger you to be both more authentic yet also supportive of the same in significant others. Jupiter in Taurus could manifest as financial returns and/or a keen emphasis on making new investments. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will serve to make you pay more attention to creating harmony in your relationships. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate your leadership drive but with an emphasis on creating more harmony.

Scorpio (October 23 – November 21)

Jupiter in Aries will guide you to confront your fears and anxieties with clarity and purpose and to have more faith in your choices. This may require that you redirect your focus to a process of personal transformation and to sharpen your focus on what really matters. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 will push you to be more ambitious and disciplined. The main challenge is to decipher between what actions constitute higher roads and which are lower. This will lead you to get more inventive in late spring into early summer. From mid-July through to September your ambitions will be stronger than usual. You will enter an inventive cycle through to October but then may need to retreat and rest for fully for a while to recharge, but by mid-November you will be in an assertive mood again ending the year on an ambitious note. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March will bring extra emphasis to your health and the quality of your overall lifestyle. Saturn in Pisces could well see you more focused on your spiritual life. Pluto in Aquarius could have a big impact on your home and living situation, possibility prompting at least the idea or determination to make some big moves. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will amplify your health focus. Jupiter in Taurus will synchronize with increased social outreach and possibly promote the biggest prosperity cycle you have had in a long time. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will direct your focus to be more realistic and proactive requiring you to make your dreams a reality supported by daily power moves. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate you at a subconscious level, yet in a way that will likely include a stronger sense of vision regarding your practical affairs.

Sagittarius (November 22 – December 21)

Jupiter in Aries has likely already and will lead you into new territory, literally and figuratively. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 is already shaking things up in your relationship life and this will continue. Positively, your drive to dive deep into your own story will lead you to realize where the old must be removed or regenerated. Doing so, by the summer you will be on fire with passion and vision. In September you will be willing to work harder and this will manifest as a new resolve to communicate more clearly and effectively, which will spur on even deeper dives to confront limitations lodged in your subconscious mind and by the end of the year, having cleared and removed inner blocks, you will be taking powerful new leads and strides. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March will inspire you to go on a quest in search of truths and answers about what you believe, why and whether your convictions are still the same or are due for some changes. Saturn in Pisces will guide you to face any and all fears more directly for the sake of accessing latent gifts and talents that await liberation or access. Pluto in Aquarius will push you to really look at why you see things the way you do so you can break free of limiting beliefs and assumptions. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate your creative passions and a focus to identify what makes you special. Jupiter in Taurus will push you to take a hard and strong look at what is important and what no longer serves you. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will help you to direct more energy and focus to do things that make you happy. October Libra Solar Eclipse will trigger new associations, friendships and group or club involvements.

Capricorn (December 22 – January 19)

Jupiter in Aries indicates a steady rise in your confidence levels. This process already began in 2022, but underwent a brief pause and is now resuming the process. It will require that you make extra efforts, however, including outlining some goals. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 will help your resolve to make the efforts and do the work you know you need to and should do. This will continue well into spring and, if you do the work you will experience a boost of confidence and inspiration that will catapult you into a dynamic summer period during which time your ambitions and determination to succeed will rise steadily. Late summer into early fall could be an excellent time to travel but you will want to be in productivity mode by mid-autumn and, if you succeed in achieving your goals, you will be able to rest peacefully as the year draws to a close and a new one begins. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March is already and will then especially activate a healing focus on your sense of identity. Who are you, what do you feel called to do or what constitutes a sense of purpose? Saturn in Pisces will support you to bring more attention to cultivating your imagination. This includes the ability to see a bigger picture and to better understand deeper truths. Pluto in Aquarius will support you by strengthening your overall focus and resolve backed by ardent ambitions. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate changes close to home and contribute to forging a new sense of identity. Jupiter in Taurus will bring returns for prior efforts and investments and will activate a whole new foundation of creative leadership. The July Lunar Nodes from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra indicates a cycle during which time making choices that are truly in alignment with your sense of authenticity and not for the sake of prestige alone will guide you. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate needed changes in your career and public life or social status in general.

Aquarius (January 20 – February 18)

Jupiter in Aries is activating more dimensions into your life. You find yourself busier and covering more angles than previously. Positively, you are more entertained and energized but be careful not to get too scattered. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 indicates an already activated creative focus that you have learned to become more comfortable with in 2022, and this focus continues. By mid-May, you could well get busier with increased imagination to support your focus. Early summer indicates a playful time, if also somewhat edgy, shared by the ones you love most. Your ambitions will deepen measurable as the summer progresses. Political and philosophical interests gain more attention into autumn, but practical ambitions will redirect your focus as the season progresses and the year ends with an impulse to engage in cultural events and possibly present a window to travel. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March indicate a time when it will prove extra important to lay full claim of responsibility for everything occurring in your life, for the sake of harnessing your personal power more fully. Saturn in Pisces will make you clear away what is no longer useful or necessary so you can redirect the freed-up time and energy to more meaningful and realistic pursuits. Pluto in Aquarius is extra important for you since it is in your sign and indicates a time of powerful changes, and even deep transformations, in your overall mode of expression in the world that could well manifest as a whole new mode of personal power. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate changes in your usual perception, interpretations and self-concept. Jupiter in Taurus will support you to feel more confident regarding what you do and do not deem important. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra will guide you to do the things that you know you should and would like to, but have perhaps been too distracted or unable to focus on. The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate your higher and visionary mind that will inspire you to be more creative than you perhaps have ever before.

Pisces (February 19 – March 20)

Jupiter in Aries indicates a time of rising new ambitions. It is extra important and ideal that you are open to new pursuits and strategies to more fully access your imagination and talents. Mars in Gemini through Sagittarius in 2023 has and continues to bring emphasis to your home and implies cleaning, clearing and renovation. Yet, this focus could also be on self-improvement as well. By late spring, you will be in an extra creative mood which will continue through summer, requiring a steady focus of effort and work directed to practical accomplishments. If you do, your ambitions will deepen as autumn progresses but you likely will need more help than previously, and the year ends with an ardent drive to make things happen in your public and professional life. Chiron in Aries and its many Conjunctions in March reveal a process underway yet which will spike at this time to learn to genuinely and more specifically, mind your own business, both literally and figuratively. Saturn in Pisces could prove sobering, yet has the potential to increase your sense of discipline and determination to do the work you know you need to do. Pluto in Aquarius should have an empowering and transformational influence on you that activates a visionary impulse to be inventive and which could elevate you to new levels of power and authority. The April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate you to harness your talents more fully for the sake of practical goals. Jupiter in Taurus will synchronize with a busier time yet one also during which you could stimulate more streams of income. The July Lunar Nodes moving from Taurus/Scorpio to Aries/Libra indicates a shift from thinking about what you should do, to taking more deliberate measures to do it. October Libra Solar Eclipse will manifest as changes on relationship fronts as some exit the stage and new players step upon it.
