

Summarized Destiny Themes for All Signs - 2024

Aries (March 21 – April 19)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – This influence indicates a continued call to re-invent yourself somehow and the pressure to do so will increase steadily all year.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – While Mars marches through Capricorn to your sign for about the first five months of 2024, you will take an assertive approach to most matters. Then, through the rest of spring and to September you will get even more determined to get to the bottom of things, which could include home renovations reaching into autumn. Yet, it is this last quarter of the year that could prove challenging especially close to home and in your most personal and intimate relationships but perhaps also with colleagues and business partners, requiring you to be extra patient and diplomatic.

Jupiter in Taurus has already begun and will continue to catapult you into new territory, both literally and figuratively for the next five plus months.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus will likely result in a significant and apparently sudden change associated with your financial reality and status, for better or worse...

Jupiter in Gemini signifies the strong potential of becoming scattered in your focus with too many interests and not enough follow through in any of them. With awareness, you can counter this impulse, but it will require due diligence.

Saturn in Pisces will push you to focus on existing projects and an inclination to retreat and deeply rest.

Pluto in Aquarius will activate future-oriented perspectives and amplify your sense of what you should do and what should be done generally in a wider, collective sense.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will contribute to amplifying your drive and determination to assert yourself more authentically.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will provide a jolt in your relationship life, possibly sparking both endings and new beginnings the process of which will extend into Spring 2025.

Taurus (April 20 – May 20)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – The call to join a larger collective or to dedicate some of your focus for the sake of a larger cause was sounded last year and continues throughout 2024.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – The year begins with Mars in Earthy Capricorn, which is a boost for you. It offers the opportunity to build a strong momentum early on. Your charge will both deepen and increase by mid-February and over the coming weeks your resolve to break through any restrictive barriers, whether within or without will double and will continue until May, anyway. By then, you would probably do well to retreat or busy yourself with other areas of focus, as a change can be as good as a rest. By the second week of June Mars will enter your sign resuming the assertive pace and this will turn into a revolutionary impulse as it closes in on a conjunction with Uranus in your sign by mid-July. Your energy levels will also surge again and see you through to early November. Indoor projects are a good way to go for the remainder of the year, or simply to re-charge in preparation for 2025.

Jupiter in Taurus has been an expansive influence for you through over the past many months and continues through to later spring 2024. At worst, it has coincided with weight gain. Given the pace of 2024, you could lose it all with the right strategy and attitude, and even more.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus will occur in your sign so you will have the opportunity to direct it to taking powerful new strides forward.

Jupiter in Gemini begins in late May and will likely coincide with more interests and projects, perhaps more than you can handle so be careful not to over promise or spread your focus too wide.

Saturn in Pisces is all about learning and unlearning for you. Regarding unlearning, this is especially true in terms of limiting self-concepts.

Pluto in Aquarius is very significant for you because it occurs in your solar career house. Changes that began in early spring last year will assume a whole new impulse. Get ready for a promotion or a new career altogether, or at least make plans for it to begin more fully later in the year or in 2025.

April Aries Solar Eclipse activate latent reserves burning deeply in your subconscious.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse trigger changes in your lifestyle which, at best, will include more color and variety, literally and figuratively.

Gemini (May 21 – June 20)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – This influence indicates summons to dedicate yourself to something greater than yourself.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – The year begins on an extra deep note. Many changes have been brewing in your world and these are directly linked to your over social and public status and perhaps to your career as well. By mid-February when Mars enters Aquarius, you will experience new waves of visionary resolve, perhaps awakening you to new perspectives on reality. By late March when Mars enters Pisces, it would be a good time to give or take a new round of learning or training. Your energy levels, however, could prove lower. As May begins, that revolutionary and visionary impulse experienced earlier stands to return and will continue through to early June. Despite the fairer weather, you may feel more inclined to go inward than to do much else, but it could prove to be a very liberating time. By the last week of July when Mars enters your sign, your energy levels should begin to rise again and this boost could be used for just about any sort of new undertaking continuing through to September. By then, you will be ready to assert yourself more rigorously and this time period could prove extra useful where stamina to get things done is required. By early November when Mars enters Leo, you will be happy to play more and or to lay low. It could also be a good time to travel.

Jupiter in Taurus has likely led you inward where you have been lingering in one manner or another since last May.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus Although this aspect will occur in your 12th house of retreat, it will be close enough to your sign to stimulate your imagination for the sake of new creative endeavors.

Jupiter in Gemini in your own sign signifies an uplifted mood and year long period supporting the inspiration to embark upon new and perhaps risky ventures.

Saturn in Pisces marks a culmination in your life, yet one which implies yielding and letting go. If you have arrived at a peak point, you are more than happy to descend from it.

Pluto in Aquarius stands to work out better for you than others as it forms a harmonious and inspirational trine to your sign.

April Aries Solar Eclipse could manifest as a change of guard in the friend department as old alliances fade and new ones come forward.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will also manifest as a creative boost that could inspire you to travel or at least to gain access to foreign interests somehow.

Cancer (June 21 – July 22)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – New beginnings or the pull to assert new initiatives in your career will continue throughout 2024.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in your solar house of relationships can prove quite edgy. Fortunately, Saturn in Pisces is actually a saving grace for you and implies learning to listen more deeply and empathize more fully with others. As Mars enters Aquarius in mid-February, a revolutionary resolve will take hold that could manifest as a higher degree of stubbornness or resolve than you have experienced for some time. When in Pisces as spring gets underway, it could synchronize with a thirst for new experiences and perhaps even as a desire for travel, if only to get away from it all. Spiritual interests could also arise. May could prove to be a time of new beginnings in your career so if that is what you want, use this time through early June to go for it. Another rather rebellious cycle could begin after that, but the energy could be directed to new creative interests or simply to have fun in the sun. This impulse could transition to an urge to get away from it all starting in late July through September. All being well, you will feel rested and ready to tackle new challenges starting in September and your resolve will remain strong though to November and perhaps even for the rest of the year.

Jupiter in Taurus could manifest as returns for past efforts and dreams come true.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could well inspire new innovative projects and you could even invent something or receive an unexpected windfall.

Jupiter in Gemini could have mix results. On one hand, it could lead you to discover new knowledge that changes the way you think and live. On the downside, it could coincide with circumstances which cause you to worry, and these could prove to be a test of your faith.

Saturn in Pisces is probably flowing more smoothly for you than other and this will generally continue throughout 2024.

Pluto in Aquarius has likely already produced a boost in your overall scope of personal power and has perhaps resulted in earning more money as well, or some other kind of boon or benefit.

April Aries Solar Eclipse occurs in your career house so you can expect change to be triggered.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate changes of some kind close to home and/or in your most personal and intimate relationships, hopefully for the better.

Leo (July 23 – August 22)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – Since Aries is a Fire Element sign as well, this overall transit is likely manifesting as the inspiration for a whole new participation in the world.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in Capricorn indicates a lot of work for you, so 2024 has probably begun on a busy note. By mid-February when it enters Aquarius, your interactions with significant others could take on a whole new scope of meaning connected to your public and professional life and your social status in general. Make every effort to be as cooperative and patient as you can. As Mars enters Pisces in later March, you will be pushed by circumstances to dive more deeply into your inner self to identify opportunities and clear blocks. As May gets going when Mars is in Aries, you will experience a fresh burst of drive and determination, provided that you attended to the inner work in the previous cycle. Mars in Taurus in early July will compel you to take a much more assertive approach in your career, but you should be ready for hard work. By later July, your energy levels should rise measurably, and this could prove to be a punchy period, so be careful and don't get carried away with unwarranted opinions or engage in reckless activities. Early September through November will be a time when you are called in again to do any needed inner work, whether in your own mind or in your home. Mars in your sign in early November and through to the end of the year could prove inspiring, yet the retrograde factor will require extra effort and resolve.

Jupiter in Taurus is your career house so already there should be signs of expansion, if also an increase in your workload.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could manifest as changes in your career linked to new levels of recognition or fame and could even manifest as presenting yourself to the world in a whole new way.

Jupiter in Gemini could manifest as meeting many new people some of who could even become actual friendships or even close relationships yet.

Saturn in Pisces marks a time in your life of deep changes which are underway now and will continue. Positively, you will emerge from this cycle in 2025 renewed somehow.

Pluto in Aquarius is powerfully placed in your house of relationships and indicates the ending of old alliances and ways of thinking and the beginning of new ones.

April Aries Solar Eclipse call you to higher-minded orientations, thoughts, philosophies, and pursuits.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will stimulate new perceptions and realizations, some of which could be classified as awakenings.

Virgo (August 23 – September 22)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – Is a call to embrace change backed by the resolve to make it happen.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in Capricorn early in the year indicates a creative impulse which includes work, and which will evolve into even more required efforts from mid-February through late March while in Aquarius. Yet, these efforts could prove very beneficial and even lucrative, if your strategy includes such aspirations. Through April the emphasis will be in your relationships, perhaps especially those associated with your career and public life in general. Mars in Aries through May and early June could well manifest as an ardent resolve to succeed, but you should be prepared to work for it. When Mars enters Taurus in June and carries through much of July, your pace should prove steady and sure with follow through resolve. When in Gemini from late July through early September, your career could undergo another big boost. September through November could prove edgy and rebellious but could prove especially useful to tackle and clear some of your own limiting beliefs, which will require radical self-honesty. Target Mars in Leo in November and December as a time to rest and recharge after a busy and progressive 10 months.

Jupiter in Taurus reveals a visionary inspiration to build a momentum for the sake of public and/or professional expansion and increase beginning in late May.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus implies new realizations, especially of the more practical sort and perhaps new philosophies as well to support your worldly ambitions.

Jupiter in Gemini occurs in your solar career house so you should anticipate and work towards expansion in your career and public life in general, guided by discipline and patient resolve.

Saturn in Pisces implies a deepening of commitments and the inner work of getting past your own habitual ego patterns.

Pluto in Aquarius is all about changes in your lifestyle including where as well as how you live.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will amplify the resolve for and trigger events that will either inspire or push you to make necessary changes in your overall approach.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will trigger new priorities caused you to let go of old self-concepts and modes of approach.

Libra (September 23 – October 22)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – is centered on integrating new attitudes and approaches in your relationship life.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – indicates an edgy and arduous start to 2024. This will continue through mid-February and will require extra efforts to break out of what could feel like a slump. Yet, Mars in Aquarius will activate a more sporting and playful mood, generally. You would be wise to get that in, though, because when Mars enters Pisces in late March, circumstances could push you back to work, especially regarding your health and that of your lifestyle. Mars in Aries as of late April through early June could prove dynamic on relationship fronts, if edgy yet again. When in Taurus through to late July, you will experience a transformational cycle, but not necessarily easy. Mars in Gemini for the rest of summer through to early September stands to be your best window of time in the year, so use it well and try to travel or go on a vacation. From then through to November, the emphasis will be on your career and how it affects your home life. The year ends with Mars in Leo which could activate yet another rebellious cycle yet could give rise to new aspects of your sense of individuality.

Jupiter in Taurus implies changes in your financial status, which could prove very good.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus This aspect generally looks good for you and could prove the boost and inspiration you have been praying for some time.

Jupiter in Gemini generally marks a difficult influence for many, but for you it could be a real treat in many ways including travel adventures, meeting interesting new people and acquiring new and significant modes of knowledge.

Saturn in Pisces requires that you make more disciplined efforts in your overall lifestyle for the sake of your health.

Pluto in Aquarius is another positive factor for you and could synchronize with a whole new mode of creative power and/or charisma.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate fresh starts on relationship fronts and your resolve to make more concerted efforts regarding your health and that of your lifestyle.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will stimulate a whole new mode and quality of self expression that could leave others experiencing a whole new version of you.

Scorpio (October 23 – November 21)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – indicates the need to be more realistic and grounded in your daily life.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in Capricorn as 2024 begins indicates higher energy levels and a creative determination. This will be followed by a hard push of effort starting in mid-February through to spring. All being well, you will have progressed and will feel more inspired to coast for a while. May through early June could prove extra busy. Your relationship life will become more stimulating through much of June and July so use it to make things happen if that is one of your goals. A whole new ambition, drive and resolve will emerge in late July through to early September, but you could be challenged to decipher between a lower or higher road. By early September through to November, you will become spirited by a wave of determination to get to the bottom of things and to contribute to needed changes either in your own life or perhaps even on wide social levels. The year will end with you directing a fresh impulse of creative energy into your career and public life, in general.

Jupiter in Taurus indicates an expansive influence in your relationship life.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus is an indication of important changes on relationship fronts, which could mean the end of some and the beginnings of others.

Jupiter in Gemini marks a somewhat complex influence for you and will have to be handled with awareness and discipline to make it work for you and not against.

Saturn in Pisces is requiring you to slow down and to be more patient with people and situations.

Pluto in Aquarius is very potent as it enters your solar house of home and family. So you should expect or at least prepare to meet the changes that could arise suddenly.

April Aries Solar Eclipse is destined to trigger changes in your overall lifestyle.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will ignite previously hidden aspects of yourself, which could prove very empowering.

Sagittarius (November 22 – December 21)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – marks a time of increased self-confidence and charisma.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in Capricorn early on implies a sort of steady as she goes approach guided by practical considerations. As it enters Aquarius in mid-February, your energy and enthusiasm levels should rise. While in Pisces starting in late March, you will feel inspired to really dig deep into the corners to clear the clutter, whether in your home or your heart and mind. May through early June while in Aries could prove extra fun and exciting, especially if you do the work just mentioned. When in Taurus starting in early June, you would be wise to be ready to work more diligently, yet with a steady sure pace towards practical achievements, for best results. When in Gemini as of late July, a spirit of adventure to engage and entertain new people and in your relationship, life could prove spicy and satisfying. When in Cancer in early September through early November, your resolve will be strong, but you may have an extra heavy workload, perhaps especially regarding your emotional state. Mars in Leo to end the year on a high note is something to work for and look forward to.

Jupiter in Taurus has perhaps prove somewhat challenging for you, manifesting as tests of faith requiring patience and adjustments.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus indicates changes in your lifestyle and perhaps in your relationship life, which could come from left field.

Jupiter in Gemini signifies a whole new quality and spirit of expansion and orientation to create a brighter future.

Saturn in Pisces has not likely been easy for you but, if handled well, implies confrontation with inner doubts and other dark and negative mindsets and beliefs for the sake of laying claim to new levels of personal power.

Pluto in Aquarius is destined to open your mind to consider new perspectives on reality, freeing you from limiting beliefs and assumptions.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will likely activate new levels of confidence and support a happier view on life in general.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will spark new friendships and associations which stand to teach you a lot of new things.

Capricorn (December 22 – January 19)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – This influence indicates a call to return to your source, your authentic nature and to huddle closer and cling tighter to home and family.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Mars in your own sign for the first six or so weeks of 2024 indicates a pioneering assertion and strong forward march, establishing a strong momentum to see you through with steady resolve as Mars enters Aquarius through the gates of spring. A period of retreat will ensue through to late April with Mars in Pisces that could be best met with more time in natural environments or securely huddled in your library or in a good book. Your energy levers and determination will again rise steadily through to early June, just in time to tackle spring cleaning. Mars in Taurus through much of July will prove ideal for leisurely moments and fun in the sun. All being well, you will be ready to get back to work earlier than usual, getting a big jump on autumn, but this time could also be met with travel interests in mind or body. September through October will require more patience, especially with family and other intimate relationships. The year will end on a deep note and will be best met to recharge in preparation for 2025.

Jupiter in Taurus has probably proven to be a positive and fortunate cycle bringing rewards for sincere efforts in earlier 2023 and latter 2022.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could also prove very fortunate, however be careful not to let success go to your head lest it stir jealousy.

Jupiter in Gemini could prove more difficult, and you will be wise to exercise gratitude and faith daily to avoid wandering into the labyrinth of your imagination.

Saturn in Pisces is a time of learning and of unlearning as well, especially regarding socially conditioned beliefs that do not align with your true nature.

Pluto in Aquarius will activate a strong, steady focus to secure future-oriented goals and could amplify your sense of what you should do and what should occur or be done regarding the greater good.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will likely stir things up close to home and with the men in your life.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse could activate significant changes in your public and professional life.

Aquarius (January 20 – February 18)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – Should have the effect of changing some of your perspectives for the sake of experiencing more confidence and inner peace.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Indicates entering the year in the extreme slow lane regarding outer activities yet could prove liberating regarding confronting and clearing inner doubts, worries and fears if you focus deliberately to this end. By mid-February, however, you will be ready to take some bold and pioneering strides to explore and expand your horizons. Things could slow down considerably for you when Mars moves through Pisces in April. May through mid-June will increase your energy levels again, considerably. Then through to mid-July, creative and constructive home projects will feel like the right thing to do. Late July through to September will be the ideal window to play in the seasonal warmth and sun. You will then be ready to get back to work and perhaps to resume your focus on home project and perhaps devote more time to family matters. November and December will prove energizing and exciting, yet extra care will be required to enter conflicts with significant others.

Jupiter in Taurus Has probably been the source of a general and steady rise in your confidence levels.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could produce some big shifts close to home, yet which could feel like dreams come true and possibly even manifest as a house move.

Jupiter in Gemini stands to be extra fun and satisfying for you, if also fiery and dramatic at times as new information challenges you to adapt.

Saturn in Pisces marks a three-year period, with two still to go during which time you are wise to be more disciplined especially regarding clearing up debts and/or unfinished business from years gone by.

Pluto in Aquarius is clearly indicative of a powerful shift for you that is likely to produce significant changes in your overall approach to life and mode of self-expression. This will prove much more obvious towards the end of the year.

April Aries Solar Eclipse is destined to activate changes in your perspectives on things, perhaps on everything.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate visionary and philosophical perspectives supporting you to keep the drama mellow.

Pisces (February 19 – March 20)

Lunar North Node – 20 to 1 degree Aries – Indicates a more concentrated focus on finances and practical actions required.

Mars in Capricorn through Leo in 2024 – Begins with a slower pace with blends of rebellion yet also of innovation as you decipher new ways of doing the things you must. This momentum will continue in similar manner through to the end of April and could prove to be a busy and productive time. Mars in your sign through late April will see you pushing forward with energetic drive and determination, a momentum that will likely continue and increase through May and into June with Mars in its own sign of Aries. All being well, you will have a strong momentum to persevere through to late July determined to get a lot done. You could then be ready for some time out through to early September, but your energy levels are likely to remain quite high and could be directed to home projects. September through October could also prove industrious, but you will feel inspired to weave work with play. The last couple of months of 2024 will likely prove extra busy as well on a variety of fronts.

Jupiter in Taurus has and continue to inspire you to take new leads and to create new ways of presenting yourself to the world.

Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Taurus could see you extra busy and on a variety of fronts and will amplify a spirit of invention and innovation and could bring unexpected returns and rewards for past efforts and on investments made years ago.

Jupiter in Gemini bodes well for a steady increase in your overall confidence levels supporting new perspectives and approaches.

Saturn in Pisces indicates a more disciplined and determined push to do things differently, but it is important to know what you want and the directions you are taking.

Pluto in Aquarius marks a very powerful and long cycle for many. Positively, it will serve by bringing old stagnant beliefs, attitudes and habitual behaviour patterns anchored deeply in your mind to the surface to be cleared once and for all.

April Aries Solar Eclipse will activate a whole new level of drive and determination to assert your ambitions to cover lost ground over the years and to get ahead of the game, perhaps for the first time.

The October Libra Solar Eclipse will activate deep and significant changes especially in your closest relationships and also in your lifestyle in general.

Michael O'Connor

Life Coach Astrologer

Website ~ Email ~ Book a Reading

1-800-836-0648

Guiding Your Future Probabilities & Possibilities...